Who We Are

At PeopleSpace, we're bold, we're innovative, and we work with amazing furniture and even better people. We give customers the best experience we can, and we do it in a way that helps our employees grow, succeed, and have fun.

What You'll Do

The Business Development Manager generates leads, qualifies potential customers and convinces clients to buy furniture and services. Responsible for sales volume, margin percent, and new business goals on a monthly, quarterly and yearly basis.

Responsibilities

Lead Generation

- Network extensively for leads (business groups, real estate brokers, A&D community, local community organizations, industry organizations - IFMA, BOMA)
- Research for leads through business journals, newspapers, industry periodicals and publications, internet, etc.
- Cold call potential clients in person or by telephone, or combination
- Participate in dealership lead generation programs such as telemarketing, open houses, industry events, etc.; follow up diligently on leads provided by the dealership

Selling

- Qualify leads into potential customers; thorough needs analysis to understand client's requirements for furniture products and services
- Make persuasive presentations to customers on dealership's products and services - in person, through written/graphic documentation and electronic means
- Develop detailed, accurate and professional quotes through own effort or in conjunction with dealership personnel (designers, customer service representatives, project managers, etc.) and present these to the customer
- Work with service departments to develop service contracts to present to customer when complex services are sold (design, for instance) or for major projects (installation, design, project management)
- Provide accounting department with timely information for necessary credit checks

IT'S NOT JUST ABOUT FURNITURE.

Working for PeopleSpace means inspiring leadership, amazing resources, and great culture
